and stated that he wanted money to help Redflex. He informed Redflex that ATS, a Redflex competitor, had clout, and thus suggested that Redflex needed Bills' assistance to effectively compete in Chicago.

6. I also provided information about the payments from Redflex to John Bills. I stated that Bills suggested using Martin O'Malley as a conduit for the payments to Bills. Accordingly, I explained that O'Malley's contract was designed to generate money for Bills. I further stated that Reflex had paid O'Malley $2.03 million between 2003 and 2012. I also noted that Jimmy Johnson and Network Electric may also have acted as a conduit for payments to Bills.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
